I am in favor of dropping the morse code requirement. The code is still an important part of the hobby, but dropping the requirement,
I believe, will encourage more people into the hobby.
Thank you for considering this issue.